TICKETS AND FLYERS

Hopefully, at the next meeting, 3/21, we will have tickets and flyers for distribution. Mary and her committee have put together a great logo that can be used from year to year and we thank the City for producing the promotional materials. Tickets will be distributed through the service clubs and can be purchased through our website: partnersforparks.net

Seating will be limited so get those tickets early!

CATERER SELECTED

Affair's Restaurant in University Place will cater the

Gay Landry, owner and fellow Rotarian, developed a menu that lends itself for a FUN and SCRUMPTIOUS evening:

Stuffed Wild Mushrooms
Native Salmon Tart
Park Place Salad
Blue Jeans Short Ribs
Black Tie Black eye Peas
Sweet Potato Mash

DESSERT AUCTION NEEDS POLICE ACTION

Steve Mauer has the desserts lined up, but the process, protocol and crowd control is being studied and will be presented soon.

TABLESCAPE DECIDED

The Tenacious Three (Sue, Sally and Sydna) ventured to AA Party Rental and selected the china, glassware, silver and linens to be used on May 3 – and it is going to be SMASHING! AA Party Rental has donated our entire needs.

THANK YOU,
AA PARTY RENTAL

American Lake Park Facts

American Lake Park has a beach along the north shore of American Lake. There is no fee to swim or park. Life guards are on duty 7 days a week from noon – 8PM during the months of July and August.
